

Dubai, UAE Fact Sheet

Vision without action is merely a dream.

Action without vision just passes the time.

Vision with action can change the world. – Joel Barker

Other Information

- ◆ Dubai has developed the concept of on-shore special economic zones with the creation of Free Zones for financial services, media, technology and commodities, amongst others. These special zones provide industry-specific world-class infrastructure with 100% business ownership, no barrier on capital and profits repatriation, no foreign exchange control plus an extended tax holiday
- ◆ Located at the crossroads of the East and the West, Dubai is the gateway to a relatively untapped region of 1.8 billion people with an economy - size of USD 1.5 trillion in terms of GDP for the Middle East Asia, Indian sub-continent and Africa, with close proximity to the developed European markets, Dubai has become a regional base for most of the Fortune 500 companies (with all top 10 having a sizeable presence)
- ◆ Dubai has a pro-business environment with an outstanding record of political stability, coupled with one of the fastest growing economies, investor incentives and protection make Dubai an extremely attractive proposition for global businesses and investors
- ◆ Already, more than three dozen U.S. and international financial firms have set up offices in the new financial district including Morgan Stanley, Merrill Lynch, Credit Suisse and Deutsche Bank
- ◆ Banks have flocked to Dubai because the energy-rich Gulf is loaded with cash. Not only that, but the financial regulations are based on the familiar code of the U.S. Security and Exchange Commission. In addition, there are three stock markets including the dollar-denominated Dubai International Financial Exchange.
